

The Cramahe Canada 150 Committee is pleased to announce a night of arts and entertainment during our Heritage Homecoming Weekend!

Saturday August 5th - Keeler Centre

5pm - Cocktail hour and the launch of Heritage Cramahe's second short film showcasing the story of local legend Postmistress Eliza Padginton.

6pm - Local Author and Order of Canada recipient Jane Urquhart will speak and read from her book "A Number Of Things" and will be available to sign your copy followed by Dinner with Black Dress Catering.

7pm - "The Great Canadian Revue", an assortment of Canadian music and improv theatre featuring the talents of The Mill Arts and Heritage Centre and Ontario Street Theatre

Tickets are available for $30 at the following locations:

Lighthouse Books (Brighton)

Kerr's Corner Books (Campbellford)

Let's Talk Books (Cobourg)

Legacy Toys (Cobourg)

Pickers Paradise (Colborne)

Downey Pharmacy (Colborne)

Funded by the Government of Canada

Canada